ALMA MATER

Near the mountain's silent splendor
And the Hudson wide,
Nobly stands our Alma Mater
Filling us with pride.

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central;
Fight to bring her fame;
Conquer all who dare to challenge;
Glorify her name.

Though we pass outside her portals
When our days are through,
Orange and Black, her grand old colors,
We will honor you.

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central;
Fight to bring her fame;
Conquer all who dare to challenge;
Glorify her name.

THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1941 respectfully dedicates this, the 13th annual Oriole, to Mrs. Charlotte Kinney Johnston and Mr. Solon L. Butterfield in sincere appreciation for all that they have done for the benefit of our school in the past ten years as its Athletic Directors.

We gratefully acknowledge the fact that they have helped Bethlehem Central to make a name for itself among other schools. What is more important, however, they have instilled the quality of good sportsmanship and the ability to cooperate with others in all who have passed through their classes.

The members of the Oriole Staff here wish to express their grateful thanks to its Faculty Advisor, Miss Gladys M. Skevington, without whose invaluable assistance this yearbook would not have been a success.

RECORDINGS

SCIENCE HAS GIVEN US a great many inventions. Some have made it possible to do our work easily and more efficiently, some have made our homes more comfortable, and others have made living more enjoyable. I am thinking of the radios in our homes which bring us a great part of our entertainment. But the radio has one fault. There can be no repeats, regardless of how much we desire them. So I believe recording is the greater achievement. A good recording of a great work will render many times unerringly the work of the artist. On the other hand, a recording with a flaw will never produce a perfect rendition.

Each of us has an instrument which makes individual recordings, our memory. In some instances the recordings are most pleasant to repeat over and over again. They are those which say we have been successful. Perhaps we have been thoughtful of others, or we have passed a barrier by perseverance, or we have won an honor, or perhaps we have done our best, and there is that satisfaction that we gave all we had. However, there are those recordings which are distasteful, for they tell us of defeat. Unguardedly, we have allowed a false character to control us, or a bit lax, we have allowed a task to slip by haphazardly, or perhaps an obstacle seemed too hard to surmount, and we have that stumbling block always to remember.

Each of us is an album of a great many recordings. Amongst mine are treasures of many happy years at Bethlehem Central. Because I prize this gift which I take with me, I should like to leave a wish for each of you: "May yours all be 'Happy Recordings'."

RESPONSIBILITIES

As the Physical Director and Coach in Bethlehem Central, it has been my pleasure and privilege to have been associated with you Seniors since you were in the third grade. It has been a great experience to have seen you "grow up."

As you have come up through the grades, your activities and responsibilities have grown and changed from time to time. The success of these activities and responsibilities has become increasingly dependent upon your ability to get along with other people. You have learned that we can't all be winners all the time; that there are rules and regulations to be followed in order to live happily with one another; that groups or teams need not only good leaders, but good followers; that a sportsman is always respected and admired regardless of whether he wins or loses.

I have seen you gradually assuming more and more responsibility in the group, and except in some isolated cases, you have filled the bill and done a grand job.

I sincerely hope that your participation in the games and athletic activities has given you the confidence to take advantage of every opportunity for bettering yourself and your group. And I hope that you will keep constantly in mind the old adage that "you never know what you can do until you try."

"A friend in need is a friend indeed" should be Mary's motto. One of our more quiet seniors, she has ability along several lines. She is a true friend and willing worker. Her capability and perseverance should take her far in her nursing career.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1941

We, the Graduating Class of 1941 of Bethlehem Central High School, being light of mind and heavy of stomach (heartburn) do hereby make, publish, and declare, (and all stuff like that there), this instrument as and for our last Will and Testament.

First: The "five year men" leave their ability for endurance to anyone in good physical condition.

Second: To Roger Fryer, we leave Donny McGuirk's ability to captain the basketball team.

Third: To Prof. H. J. Hall, we leave the underclassmen to keep him company between the hours of 3:15 and 5:15 p. m. respectively.

Fourth: To Ruth Killough and Joan Weaver, "Moe" Willard leaves her super athletic ability.

Fifth: To Virginia McCormick, Jane Ketchum leaves her flashing eyes and eyelashes. (Long may they wave! !).

Sixth: To June Jensen, Marian Kibbe and Carolyn Hardy leave two or three inches of "you know what" and also the Vitamins A through Z, inclusive.

Seventh: Dot Luce leaves James Montgomery to his own class.

Eighth: To Gloria Kronowitt, Frances Keelan leaves her clear-cut beauty.

Ninth: To next year's guides, Captain Dick Betts leaves four lounges in hopes that "guests" will never again be uncomfortable.

Tenth: To Miss Newell, we leave a box of unbreakable chalk, an insulated hot-water bag, and a Democrat! !

Eleventh: Lee Ewing leaves to Perry Coxe the title of "Most Handsome Senior."

Twelfth: Adele Buchaca and Ben Grant leave their brains to Mr. Fullagar and Science in general.

Thirteenth: To Damnation, we leave A. Hitler, Esq.

Fourteenth: To each teacher, we leave a private secretary to answer the phone during classes.

Fifteenth: To "Bundles For Britain", we leave 45 fur-lined snoods (knitted by the boys of the class) and 63 rubber boots (colors red, white and brown and sizes ranging between 4AAAA to 13GGG,) contributed by the girls.

Sixteenth: To Renny Crain, we leave exclusive right to all ASSCAP tunes.

Seventh: "Ginnie" Neal leaves her good looks and beauty for all to remember.

Eighteenth: To their husbands, we leave Mrs. Eleanor Gage Haywood and Mrs. Charlotte Kinney Johnston, to whom in turn, we have left our respects, baby bottles, best wishes for a happy future, and a clothes-lineful of "you guess what"!

Nineteenth: To "Skevy", we leave Bob Grant for explaining the New Yorker jokes.

Twentieth: To Miss Knowles we leave, at last, a Virgil class.

Twenty-first: To Mr. Hoag, we leave chartreuse, vermillion, and aqua-marine colored socks, (we hated to be so conservative, but he can always use them for a funeral or some drab affair like that).

Twenty-second: To Addie Parker, Nursie Humiston, Alice Rickert and Nellie Cuipek we leave bigger and better basketball games to yell at.

Twenty-third: To Mrs. Skillman, we leave the hopes of getting an elevator for her.

Twenty-fourth: To Mr. Hritz, we leave a great, big, big bank roll, (may nothing ever go in the "red" again).

Twenty-fifth: We leave to Mr. Bookhout a struggle-buggy for patroling the halls.

Twenty-sixth: Bill Moak, Dick Lynch, Bob Simon, Al De Shaw, Dick Betts and Al Emmons leave their running ability to the Class of 1942 in hopes that it can keep up with the standards set by "41".

To everyone and anyone in general, we leave this, our Last Will and Testament, and also a toast to the future (no not Melba)! !

Duly signed and administered on this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord, 1941.

CLASS PROPHECY—(Or Reflections in a Psycopathic Ward)

I SEEMED TO BE COMING dreamily, hazily, and happily from another world, and, as yet, nothing was real,—nothing, that is, except the putrescent essence of ether. Far, far away I thought I saw a doctor and heard him saying, "Yes, tch, tch, we had to operate on the poor boy's brain; he developed a chronic case of cerevric-amentia from endeavoring so hard to write a class prophecy for his school year book"....Ah, now I remembered! Yes, yes. As I opened my eyes more fully, I realized that I was in the same old hospital room,—or was I? . . .

The doctor whom I recognized to be Ben Grant boasted billowy sideburns and a large mustachio; the three nurses at his side I knew at once were Jean Tiedeman, Virginia Neal, and Carolyn Hardy, even though each did wear her hair in a high pompadour with a knot at the back. I also noticed that their dresses very unrevealingly met their lace-ups (gaiters) at the ankles. My! My! Had I been under the ether so long that the styles had changed? . . .

As the others silently departed, Carolyn soothed my forehead and told me that if I would be very quiet, she would have the duty nurse bring me something to read. After she had gone I discontentedly contemplated what was happening to me, until the door opened, and in walked Carolyn Doherty with a magazine entitled Ketchum's Bazaar and a newspaper called the Bethlehem Star Tribune, whose motto I noticed to be, "old or new we give it to you", I thanked my old class-mate, and having taken my temperature with a thermometer marked DeShaw instead of the usual Fahrenheit, she went out leaving me to browse. . . . As I turned the page of Ketchum's Bazaar I noticed that Jane Ketchum was Editor-in-chief with Margie Schaffner, Jeanne Miller, Marjorie Littlefield, June Nodine, and Josie Schmuttbrubscrublimostein as Associate Editors. Edith Seiler, Louise McCauley and Marolyn Guy were Art Editors, Edna Lacy was Book-Section Editor, Vesta Willard was Children's Page Editor, Dick Betts was Business Manager, and Bill Mason and John Kenyon were Managers. The printers were Don Brate & Co.

"Could all these people be my class mates of my dear old Alma Mater! ! !", I wondered, as I fingered through the magazine. On one of the fashion pages I noted that the new style "hobble" skirts were designed by Marian Kuhn of the Kuhn shops of London; another page of fashions presented to my bewildered eyes the frightful and fruitful hats of Mlle. Dorothy-Lily Mashe'-Spencer of Paris. Two things I particularly remembered about this magazine were its original short stories by Suzaane Cantwell and its articles on personal adventures and travels by Inez Williman. As I closed Ketchum's Bazaar, I noticed on the back cover an advertisement appealing to the modern American woman to beautify herself with the latest in wasp-waist girdles originated by Dorothy Luce of For-Goodness-Saks, Fifth Avenue, New York City.

I now turned to my newspaper which proved to be edited by Margery Hicks; on the front page in blearing headlines was the report that the Wright Brothers, on trial, denied that they stole from Allen Emmons, Warren Ganter and Fred Richter (who claimed to be the original inventors) the plans for the aeroplane flown recently and successfully at Kitty Hawk. Judge William Pierpont Montague Oliver, III was officiating at the trial. In another column it was reported that President Robert Delano Simon and members of his cabinet Leland Ewing, Norman Knisely and Willis Vogel were conferring on the Federal Strawberry Reserve question. On page two there was a cartoon of woman suffregette, Marian Kibbe, drawn by Bob Phillips; also there was a Society Column written by Jane Snyder which told among other things of the marriage of Norman Einstein Nichols and Dorothy Lamour Smallman. On the same page that announced that Miss Barbara Pickford Greenhalgh had won the title of Miss America, 19? ?, I came across a notice which read as follows:—Maxwell automobiles and other horseless carriages for sale—Repairs—Over and underhauling—Pneumatic tires—Horseshoeing—Bacher, Stott, Nicholson, Vaughan, and Donato,—Proprietors. . . .

Several days later during the course of which I had the following nurses in attendance, Nurse Lorraine Shreiner, Nurse Mary Winne, Nurse Marjorie Martin, Nurse Gloria Hotaling, Nurse Pearl Knowles, Nurse Blanche Freleigh, Nurse Phyllis Fink, and Nurse Rita Gagner, I was allowed to roam about the hospital, being interned only at night for inspection. During this period of roaming I discovered that Norma Dooley was in charge of the Children's Ward which joined the Psycopathic Ward that I was in. At the Head Nurse's desk I found Mildred King, and sitting nearby were Katherine and Elizabeth Wagner, looking prim and alike in their shirtwaists, doing secretarial work on some ancient machines which I finally concluded were forerunners of the modern typewriter. . . .

In a few days more, Doctor Grant gave me permission to leave the hospital; this made me very happy, and I immediately left, having said my "adieus" to all my friends. . . .

I now found myself walking along a main street thickly populated with horses, people, wagons, carts, buggies and a few automobiles. As I walked beneath the tall, shady oaks and elms on the slate-stone sidewalk, a curious looking horse-drawn vehicle pulled up, and its driver, who turned out to be Paul Eck, asked if I wanted a cab, but as soon as he recognized me, and I, him, he told me to get in, and he would show me the city. We first passed a large building, which Paul told me was designed and constructed by the Raymond Mac Donald Construction Co. In this building were several shops and business offices; I noticed the Shirley-May, a florist shop, owned and operated by Shirley Perry, according to Paul. In this same building were the Phillips and McGuirk Employment Agency offices (I waved to Deane and Don in their window as I passed) and the main branch of the Gwendolyn and Lois Beauty Shops, managed by Lois Haswell and Gwendolyn Hotaling. In one window was the sign; Embalming While You Wait—Bruce Brunk—prop.

Having passed Marguerite Vanderbilt, pushing a twin baby carriage, I saw another window stenciled "Mott & Mott, Law Firm", and as I called attention to it, Paul said that the two brothers, Jim and George, were doing quite famously,—considering the length of time they had been in business. He also told me that "Robin" Hand was sixth vice-president in the Petromolitan Life Insurance Corporation building next door.

The next building, I could easily see, was a school of some sort; Paul confirmed my convictions by telling me that it was the D. B. C., a business school. He further enlightened me by listing the members of the faculty, who had graduated from dear old Bethlehem Central; they were as folows: Sam Donato, Gertrude Andrews, Dorothy Bentz, Dorothy Byrnes, Evelyn Campbell, Ellen Gilgore, Helen Kleinke, Ruth Miller, Marie Willis, and Etta Mae Wineberger.

Further down the street we came to a wooden structure, very similar in appearance to pictures I have seen of old time "Opry Houses", and that's just what it was. At this point I gave Paul my thanks and descended from the gig or hansom (or what-ever it was) and proceeded toward the theater; the billboard proclaimed, in that type common to the beginning of the century, that the production now featured was "The Fireman's Flame", with Irma Pinney in the titular role; the billboard also told that "Romeo and Juliet" was to be presented the next week with Mlle. Frances Keelan as Juliet and Dick Lynch as Romeo; and the week following "Romeo and Juliet" would feature, (it read), Mlle. Esther Burnes, originator of the Turkey Trot and her chorus of real turkeys.

Glancing at my watch I found that I was just in time for the matinee. I paid my way and went in. In the lobby Alice Tibbits, enveloped in sables, was pointed out to me as Ambassador-at-Large to all South America in general. Harry Paige was pointed out as the World's Tennis Champion. In the brief time before the curtain rose, I saw in the audience, in Navy uniforms of the Pre-Gob era, the following Messieurs: Thomas Barker, Edward Colwell, Kenton Sperry, William Cook, ("I was shanghaied", he claimed), William Hotaling, Roy McCormack, William Moak, Arnold Moore, and Joe Thomas. . . . As the curtain ascended and the orchestra took position, I saw that Donald Leopold Cassavantski was conducting, and that Elizabeth Nasner was playing the harp. I also noticed in the Gibson Girl chorus: Robin Auty, Betty Martin, and Elaine Sanefski. . . .

Between Acts One and Two I met Adele Buchaca and Kermit Remele, who told me that they were the Art and History professors, respectively, at the Teachers' College. . . .

Between Acts Two and Three a short, humorous skit was presented, entitled the "Original Brenda and Cobina", featuring Jeanne Paige as (you'll never guess) and Elvira Wolf-Girl as Cobina. This proved quite amusing; however, I was glad to get back to the play and Irma's grand singing.

When the last round of applause had stopped, and the house-lights had gone up, I turned and saw on either side of me I had an old class-mate. Paul Luce, who was on my left, told me that he was now a forester for the Government; Spencer Lodge, and David Halsdorf, who were to the right of me, explained to me the advantages of their farms.

Now I withdrew from the theater with the rest of the audience, and as I came into the open air everything suddenly went foggy. I began to feel very groggy and d-r-o-w-s-y

(z z z z z z z)

. . .The next thing I can remember is opening my eyes in a modern hospital room. My real doctor (who never even saw Bethlehem Central) leaned over and explained to me that I was coming out of a coma (Boy! if he only knew) and that something had gone wrong during my brain operation, and that (to put it colloquially) my "wires had been temporarily crossed" so as to produce anything that I might be thinking in reverse, if you know what I mean. . . . !

. . . And so endeth my Dream Prophecy of what might have happened had we all not been born "thirty years too late".

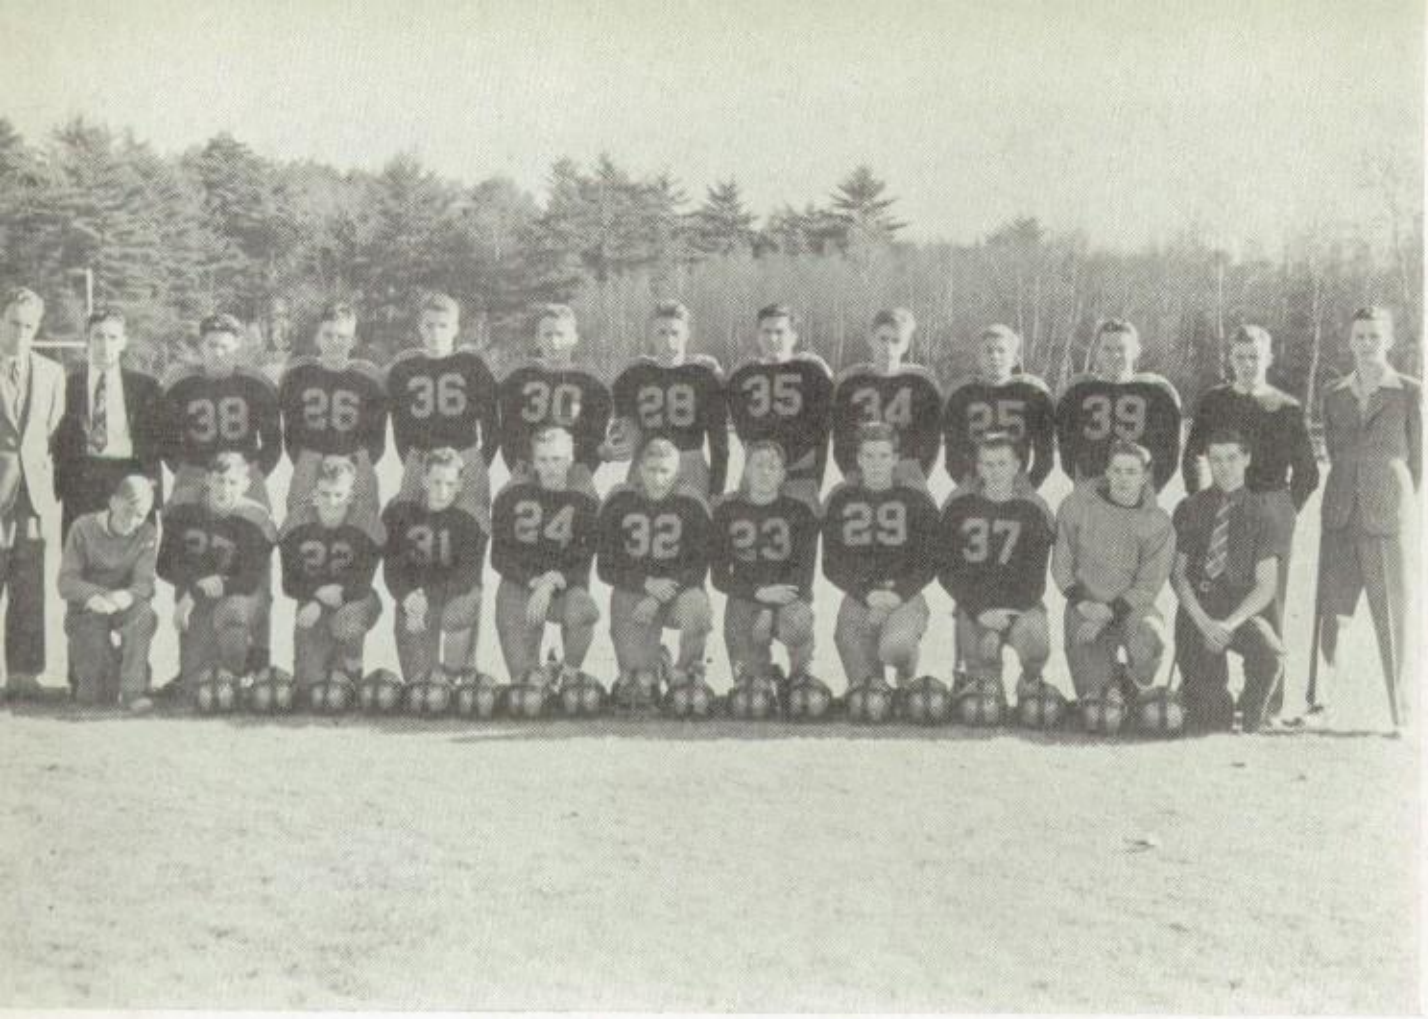
SPORTS



FOOTBALL

SIX MAN FOOTBALL has at last come to our school. Some forty odd boys reported for practice. Under Coach Butterfield's direction the team compiled a good record for the first year. Bethlehem lost to Ravena, Roesselville, and Coxsackie. We won over Roeliff Jensen, Coeymans, St. John's, Chatham, and tied with St. John's of Albany (4 won, 3 lost, 1 tied).

The team was sparked by quarterback Jack Adams, who made a net gain by passing and rushing of 514 yards out of 81 tries. He made 34 out of the 85 points of the team. Harry Swartout proved indispensible as fullback, gaining 372 yards by rushing, and 157 yards by passing, out of 73 tries. Ben Grant held the blocking back position. Lee Ewing and Bud Moore on the ends and Bill Stewart at center rounded out our starting team. The rest of the squad consisted of Jack Van Zandt, Don McGuirk, Earl Jones, Al Dieter, Robert Hand, George Jamison, and James Mott. Captain Dick Lynch sprained his ankle just before the season started. He proved himself to be a good end when he returned to the sqaud at the end of the season.

Next year's squad should be even better. With a year's experience, and six regulars returning, it looks pretty good. Jack Adams will be Captain.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

UNDER THE LEADERSHIP of Captain Don McGuirk, Bethlehem had a great season (9 won, 5 lost).

The flashy, diminutive forward, Jack Adams, set a new individual scoring record (25 points in one game). He scored a total of 156 points for the season, averaging 11 points a game. Van Zandt was second in scoring, with 90 points; McGuirk, third, with 68.

The squad (consisting of McGuirk, Adams, Van Zandt, Swartout, Fryer, Lynch, Jones, Raymond, Ottman, Rowe, and Boutelle) outscored the opponents by 450 to 406 points. They defeated Rensselaer, one of this section's best basketball teams, for an outstanding victory. Milne, our traditional rival, was beaten by us twice this year.

This year's results are:

	B	O
Dec. 6—Rensselaer	32	33
Dec. 7—Cobleskill	25	31
Dec. 14—Greenville	35	15
Dec. 20—Milne	32	30
Jan. 11—Coeymans	29	26
Jan. 17—Schuyler	25	41
Jan. 24—Roesselville	26	40
Jan. 25—Schoharie	58	20
Jan. 31—Greenville	31	21
Feb. 8—Schuyler	22	31
Feb. 13—Voorheesville	36	35
Feb. 15—Cobleskill	35	31
Feb. 21—Rensselaer	32	19
Feb. 28—Milne	34	33

This year's manager was Jim Montgomery. Next year's Captain will be Roger Fryer.

BASEBALL

THE ONLY THING that is known to be definite about this year's squad is the infield. It remains the same as last year with Harry Swartout on first, Bud Moore on second, Jack Adams on short, and Roger Fryer on the "hot corner." This infield is the pride of the team, probably being the best infield in the league.

We will need a complete new outfield this year, but our real problem is the pitching staff. There is not a pitcher left from last year. Sidney Dixon and Harry Swartout are two promising candidates for the pitching staff. Returning from last year's sqaud are: Jim Mott, Scotty Rowe, Clyde Vadney, Bob Hicks, and Al Raymond. John Seyboth is going out for baseball as a catcher. Lee Ewing is a new comer.

We will probably play a 14 game schedule, 8 League games and 6 outside games with Voorheesville, Milne, and Hudson.

The team will be captained by Harry Swartout this year, and Ken Buchanan will be its manager.

TRACK

THE TRACK TEAM should have a fairly good season this year under the direction of our new coach McIntyre and manager Perry Coxe, with the following men left over from last year: Bill Moak (440), Dick Lynch (weights and sprints), Renny Crain and Don McGuirk (pole vault), Jack Van Zandt (hurdles), Jack Adams (sprints), Bud Moore (sprints), Howd and Carmer (high jump), Bob Simon and Dick Betts (mile), Al de Shaw (880) and Al Emmons (440). The Cross Country team should furnish us with some good distance men.

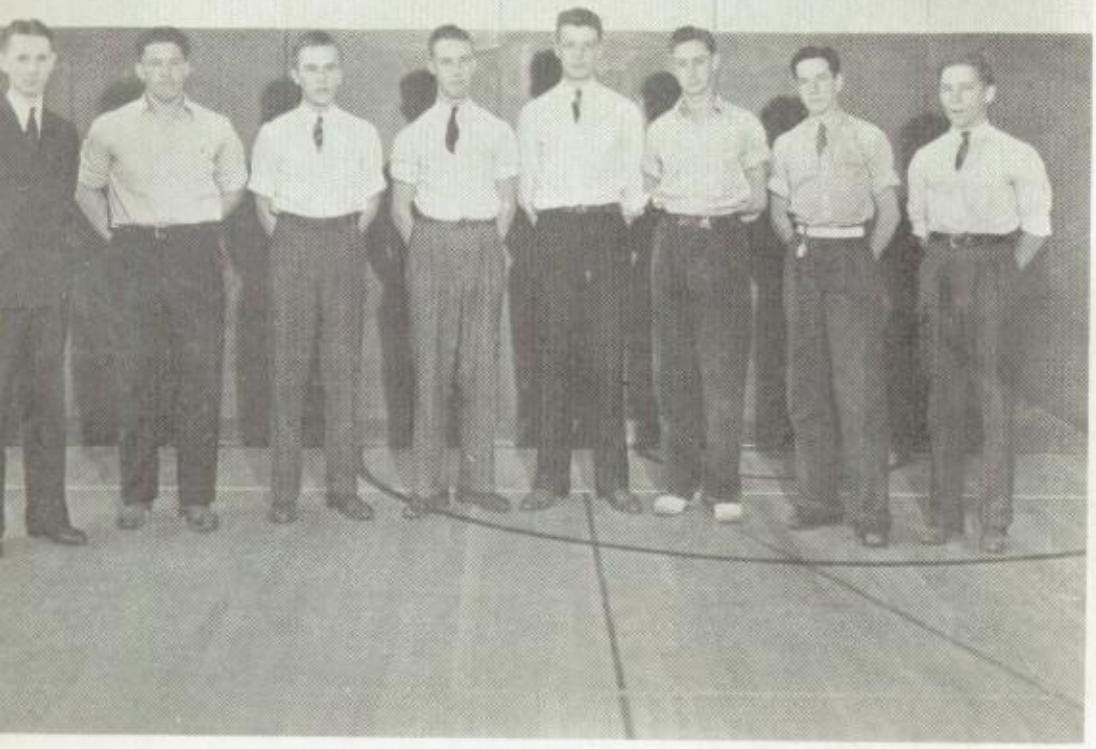
This year's team has a job on its hands. Bethlehem hasn't lost a regularly scheduled public high school duel meet in five years. Last year's team made a name for the school at the sectionals at Gloversville. They finished second, only 6½ points behind Glen Falls, beating such teams as Eastwood High, and Syracuse Central of Syracuse, Gloversville, Saratoga, Amsterdam and Johnstown High Schools.

Captain Bill Moak should be one of the best quarter milers in this section, having already equaled the quarter mile record of this school.

CROSS COUNTRY

THIS YEAR CROSS COUNTRY attracted many boys. The team ran two dual meets and a triangular meet. We lost to Mount Pleasant, Nott terrace, and Christian Brothers Academy. We defeated La Salle of Troy for the first victory our Cross-Country teams have ever had.

The lettermen were: Bill Moak, Al De Shaw, Bob Simon, Dick Betts, Jim Hamlin, Al Emmons and Scotty Rowe. All but two of these fellows will graduate, but with younger prospects coming up, Cross Country should advance. The manager was Grant Van Patten.



BOWLING

THIS YEAR BETHLEHEM started the season with three veterans who have been starting material for the past three years. Harry Swartout, Jack Van Zandt, and Bill Oliver, all sporting averages of 170 or better were the center of the team. Ken Buchanan, Lee Ewing, and Don McGuirk rounded out the rest of the squad.

This year the team had its best season in the history of the school. Under the guidance of Mr. McCord the team won the Championship in the Central Hudson Valley League, winning from Castelton on the home stretch. Lee Ewing annexed the individual high single and triple for the team.

Next year's squad should be fairly good with several of the veterans returning.

TENNIS

BETHLEHEM CENTRAL HAS always had a good tennis team, and this year should be a repeat, if past performance means anything. Although the team will operate without the valuable services of Harry Paige (who, by the way, has won 4 tennis letters); there will be five letter men coming back. They are Buster Jones, Renny Crain, Dick Simon, Dwight Ewing and Arthur Tomlinson. Credit is due, for our undefeated season last year, not only to the consistant winning of Paige and Jones, but also to Simon, Ewing, and Tomlinson who pulled more than one match out of the fire.

Bethlehem's strongest rival is probably Albany High School. Bethlehem succeeded in winning over Albany last year, but only by a narrow margin. Their team is said to be stronger than ever this year. However, with the able direction of Mr. Schwartz and this year's nucleus, predictions are as high as ever, and a good season is expected. This year's team will be captained by Renny Crain.

VARSITY GOLF

THIS YEAR THE VARSITY GOLF team is looking forward to a successful season. Last year the team won one half of its matches and gained good experience in competition. "Hold over" lettermen include Leland Ewing, Charles Windhovel, and Robert Lattin. Some of the team's outstanding prospects are Allan Raymond, Harry Swarthout, James Howarth, Robert Grant and Tommy Potter. This year's team is under the capable management of Guy Smith.

With all this prospective material we are sure we can turn out a winning team. This year's schedule includes matches with Albany High and Phillip Schuyler, and probably with C. B. A., Milne, and Vincentian. As usual our home matches will be played at Normanside Country Club.

The team will have Leland Ewing as its able captain for this season.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

THIS YEAR THE BOYS' INTRAMURALS has been divided into two leagues of six teams each, the Major Division and the Minor Division. Each team is awarded five points for winning a game, ten points for having a full team on the field, and two and one half points for a tie game.

A staff with Jack Nicholson as the manager and six assistant managers was appointed to assist the coach in the supervision of the Intramural Sports.

The full intramural season ended with Army, captained by Grant Van Patten, at the top of the Major Division Football League, and R. P. I., captained by Herbert Gall, topping the Minor Division Soccer League with a perfect record of having lost none of their games.

In the intramural basketball league Cornell, captained by Al De Shaw, led the Major Division, winning eight out of ten games played. Colby, captained by Kenneth Knapp, took first place in the Minor Division, winning eight out of ten games played.

Two popular sports, badminton and volley ball, are to be introduced for the first time this year as intramural sports.

Although the soft ball season has not yet opened, there is every reason to expect the right degree of sportmanship and success that has characterized the year of Intramural Sports in B. C. H. S.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

EVERY TUESDAY AND THURSDAY during seventh period there are girls' intramural games. These intramurals are for the purpose of giving the girls a chance to show what they can do in order that the coach may choose varsity and junior varsity teams for various sports. The three main sports are, Volley Ball, Basketball and Badminton.

Basketball had the largest number of girls participating. There were in the Senior High League eight, well organized teams, named after famous rivers.

They were: Amazons, Margie Hicks, Captain; Styx, Virginia Neal, Captain; Rio Grande, Marion Kibbe, Captain; Volga, Ruth Killough, Captain; Po, Frances Ardizon, Captain; Danube, Helen Prue, Captain; Congo, Virginia Miller, Captain; Ohio, Jane DeRonde, Captain.

The junior high teams chose their names according to the names of colleges.

They were: Cornell, June Grim, Captain; Vassar, Joyce Johnson, Captain; Sargeant, Nancy Lieschman, Captain; Skidmore, Mary Bacher, Captain; Mt. Holyoke, Leora Demph, Captain; Wellesley, Phillis Haswell, Captain.

VARSITY CLUB 1941

THE VARSITY CLUB is composed of those boys who have earned at least one letter in a varsity sport. This year, unfortunately for the club, our adviser, Coach Solon Butterfield, left us.

The varsity club sponsored refreshments for the visiting basketball teams again this year. After the games, the two teams would get together in the locker room and talk over the game. We felt that serving refreshments after the games promoted a certain feeling of fellowship among the players.

"The Alumni Ledger" is another project of the Varsity Club. This is a bulletin sent out to all alumni who were in the Club, telling them of the various activities and sports contests held at the school during the year.

Officers this year are:

President ..... HARRY SWARTOUT
Vice President ..... JAMES MOTT
Secretary ..... ARNOLD MOORE
Treasurer ..... JACK ADAMS

DEPUTY CLUB

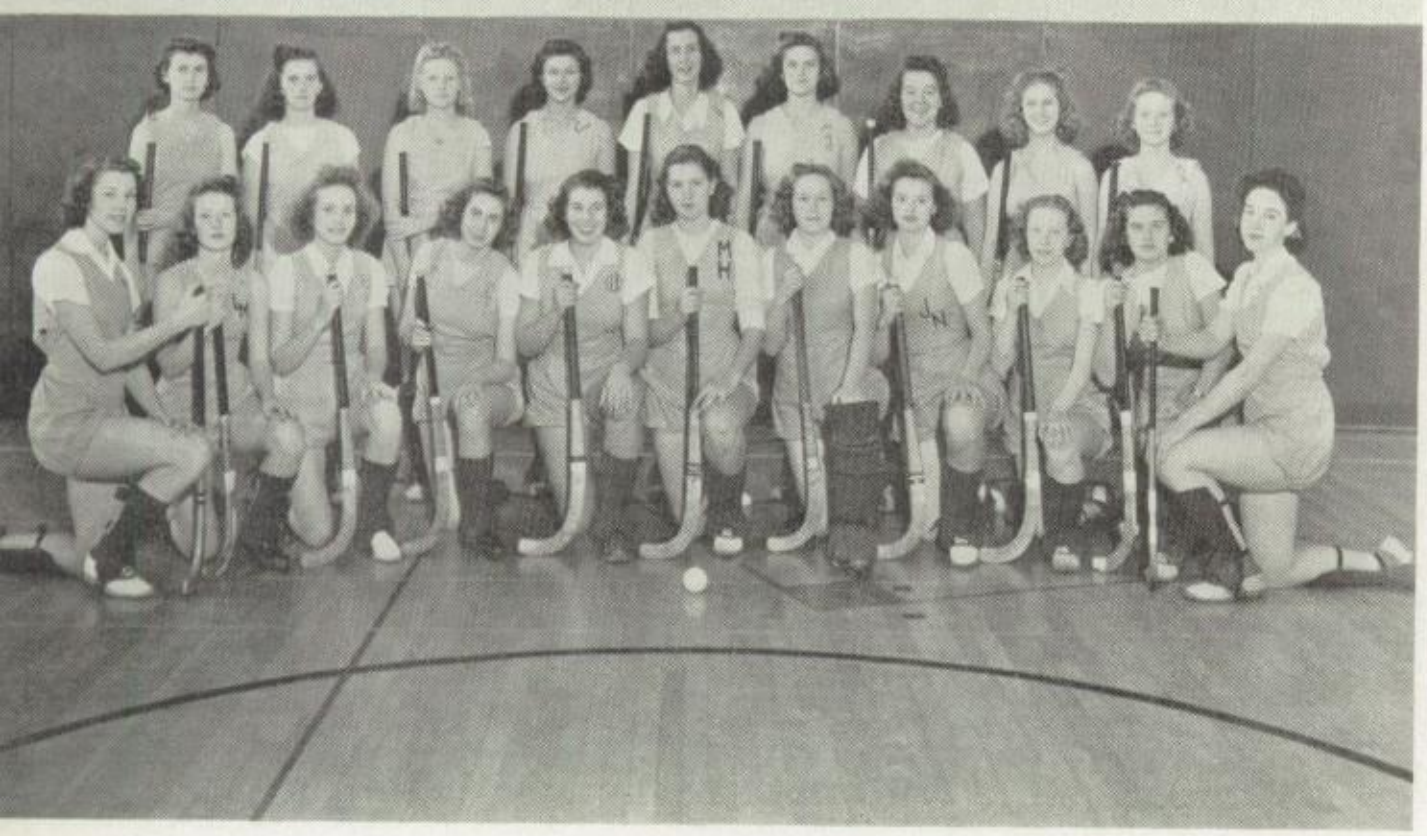
THE DEPUTY CLUB, organized in 1938, has enjoyed a successful year under the able leadership of Vesta Willard as captain and Ruth Killough assistant captain. A slight change was made in the point system, so that the captain of the Deputy Club now receives 300 points instead of 200, and the assistant captain receives 150 points.

During the year the Deputies arranged a basketball game between the Junior and Senior girls, and also a game between the Boys' varsity and the Girls' varsity which will long be remembered. The club's many activities included a sport dance, several tea dances, and the observance of Deputy Week.

The girls express their regret that this will be Mrs. Johnson's last year as sponsor for the club.

The officers of the club are:

Captain.....VESTA WILLARD
Assistant Captain.....RUTH KILLOUGH
Secretary.....JANE KETCHUM
Treasurer.....JEANNE PAIGE



GIRLS FIELD HOCKEY

Our girls' team, captained by Margie Hicks, won all but one of their games last fall. They played throughout the season with Milne and Mt. Pleasant. The girls really put all they had into the games and made it a successful season.

A Northeast Field Hockey Tournament was held here on our field last fall. There were teams from Boston, Styvesant, Long Island, New York, and Worcester, and also the Mohawk Club, our local hockey team, in which some of our graduates and Mrs. Johnston are members. The tournament was a three day affair from November 18 to November 20.

Members of the varsity team:

Marjorie Hicks
Vesta Willard
June Nodine
Marion Kibbe
Ruth Hafley
Ruth Killough
Jean Bennett
Joan Weaver
Eva Saint
Virginia McCormick
Peggy Smith

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

THE VARSITY BASKETBALL team this year had a full schedule. There were playdays, which are more fun than you can imagine, and afternoon games, both home and away. These girls, captained by Joan Weaver, have won all their games. In fact, the Varsity at B. C. H. S. has been undefeated for five years in succession—half of the credit for this superb record goes to "MIKE," our coach.

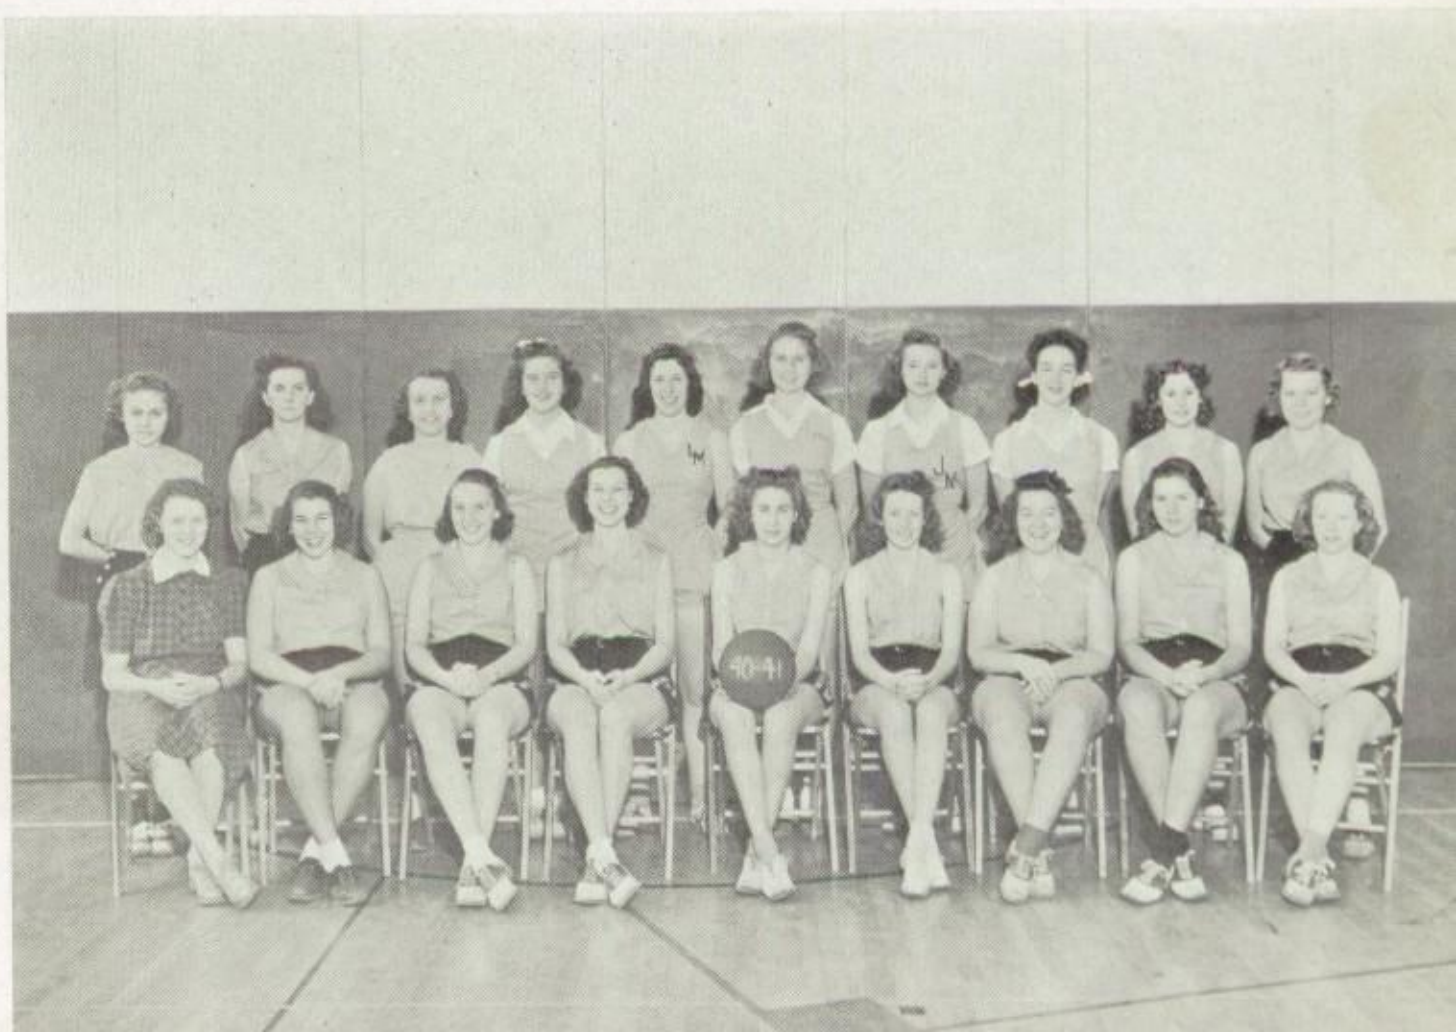
Playdays consist of the participation of several school teams. Each team plays another one until all the teams have played. Other games are played, such as, badminton, and ping pong, in which the ones who are not playing basketball at the time may participate.

Outside of the scheduled playdays, the team played home and away with Milne, Cobleskill, Mont Pleasant, and Draper. Joan Weaver was high scorer with over 40 points, and Gloria Hotaling was second high with over 30 points.

Good luck girls with your future entries into the realm of basketball!

The team consisted of:

JOAN WEAVER
VIRGINIA MCCORMICK
FRANCES ARDIZONE
RUTH HAFLEY
JANE KETCHUM
GLORIA HOTALING
JUNE NODINE
MARGIE HICKS
VESTA WILLARD
VIRGINIA NEAL
RUTH KILLOUGH
JEAN BENNETT
DOROTHY PASTORIA



GIRLS' SOFTBALL

THE SOFTBALL TEAM did not have a very successful season last spring in spite of hard work. Vesta Willard, who succeeds Mary Packman as captain, promises that this spring will be a good season if everybody gets into training early and works hard at it.

Last year the girls played Milne, Albany High, and Mt. Pleasant.

The team this year consists of:

VESTA WILLARD
JANE KETCHUM
DOROTHY PASTORIA
RUTH KILLOUGH
GLORIA HOTALING
JEANNE PAIGE
MARION KIBBE
MINNIE GREGORY
JOAN WEAVER
VIRGINIA MCCORMICK
BARBARA MOREY
FRANCES ARDIZONE
HILDRETH GALL
VIRGINIA MILLER
HELEN PRUE
PEGGY DOHERTY
HELEN STEEDE
ELAINE SANEFSKI
BETTY MARTIN
OLIVE VOGEL

CHEERLEADERS

THE CHEERLEADERS under Frances Ardizone, captain of the cheerleading squad, did an exceptionally good job this year. A new idea was initiated in the form of noon time pep rallies, which were scheduled at different times throughout the basketball season. There was a good "turnout" every time, and everyone seemed to enjoy these rallies.

Connie Conroe showed her composing ability by writing new songs for the squad. The new cheers were written by the squad as a whole and met with the full approval of the students at the games.

It was decided this year that at each game the cheer leaders would change around from varsity to junior varsity alternately. This worked pretty well, but we hope to have a better system planned for next year.

The members of the squad are:

FOOTBALL: Frances Ardizone, captain, Ruth Hafley, Joan Weaver, Eva Saint, Jannet Flume, Norman Knisley.

SONG LEADERS VARSITY: Margie Schaffner, Connie Conroe.

BASKETBALL JUNIOR VARSITY: Virginia Neal, captain, Frances McCormick, Jane Schneider, Doris Tiedeman.

BASKETBALL VARSITY: Frances Ardizone, captain, Norman Knisley, Ruth Hafley, Joan Weaver, Virginia McCormick, Jean Bennett, Jannet Flume, Eva Saint.

SONG LEADERS JUNIOR VARSITY: Jeanne Paige, Virginia Remington.

Activities

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT COUNCIL this year has gained more prestige and played a more important role in the school than ever before. A successful drive securing over seventy-five per cent of the students as members of the Student Association, the nominations and election of officers by popular vote, and a balanced budget are a few of the things carried out by the Council to make the school more democratic.

The following officers, with the aid of Mr. Bookhout and Mr. Hritz, presided during the year:

President . . . . . DONALD MCGUIRK
Vice President . . . . . MARGERIE HICKS
Secretary . . . . . MARIAN KIBBE
Treasurer . . . . . ROBERT SIMON

ORCHESTRA

THE BETHLEHEM CENTRAL ORCHESTRA can consider this year one of its finest. Under the able direction of Mr. Truitt its playing has developed commendably. Connie Conroe has been an able student conductor. The accompanists were Edna Lacy and Jane Christiansen.

The Orchestra opened the program of the Christmas Music Festival here at Bethlehem Central. The choruses also participated. Berne-Knox, Cobleskill, East Greenbush, Coeymans, and Ravena shared in the festival. The program contained numbers by choruses, orchestras, and bands, and the finale was a massed band and chorus composed of band and chorus members from the various schools.

The Orchestra played an important part in the operetta, "Rose of the Danube," presented April 4th. and 5th. The operetta was a school project in which the Senior High Chorus, the Junior High Chorus, and the Orchestra took part.

The Orchestra played at Hudson and Cobleskill. It made its final appearance of the year for commencement.

The Orchestra looks forward to next year when there will be more complete instrumentation with the addition of new instruments owned privately and by the school.

Officers:

President ..... RICHARD BETTS
Vice President ..... PEGGY SMITH
Secretary ..... JANE CHRISTIANSEN
Treasurer ..... JOHN ALLEN

SENIOR HIGH CHORUS

The Senior High Chorus has again scored high in its musical endeavors. Twice it participated in the Music Festival. At our own festival were bands, orchestras, and choruses from Ravena, Coeymans, Cobleskill, Berne-Knox, and East Greenbush.

Under the capable hand of Mr. Truitt, the chorus together with the cooperation of the Junior Class, the Junior High Chorus, the orchestra, and Miss Skevington, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Marston, Mr. Neuthardt, and Mrs. Sargis, presented our second operetta, "Rose of the Danube," by Arthur Penn. Those included in the cast were: Frances Keelan, Robert Hand, Irma Pinney, Robert Cook, Jeanne Paige, Thomas Ottman, Donald Cassavant, Elmer Beaumont, Norman Knisley, Jean Morris, Dolores Unright, Roberta Kelly, Douglas Rook, and Willis Vogel.

The other spring activities besides the operetta, were the annual trip to Cobleskill, and the singing at baccalaureate.

Officers are:

President.....Norman Knisley
Vice President.....Connie Conroe
Secretary.....Eva Saint
Treasurer.....Joyce Manley

JUNIOR HIGH CHOIR

THE JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS, under the direction of Mr. Truitt, has done very fine work this year, and is in hopes that each year it will improve, not only in skill, but in numbers as well.

The first event of the year was the Christmas Festival which was a great success. The chorus also participated in the operetta, "The Rose of the Danube." The last event of the year was the Spring Festival.

Jane Christiansen was our very able accompanist.

The officers are:

President.....JUNE GRIM
Vice President.....JOYCE JOHNSON
Secretary.....ANDREW GRANATO

BETHLEHEM STAR

THE BI-MONTHLY MIMEOGRAPHED SCHOOL PUBLICATION, B. C. H. S. Star, which is now in its third year, has made great progress. Its appearance has improved; it has helped to form public opinion on student problems; it has proved interesting reading. "Star-dust" by Yehudi is the most popular column. By the way, Yehudi is in the staff picture. Recognize him? Recently "Peeks by Pooky," written by Richard Grant, has rivaled it, as far as the Junior High is concerned. The paper is on a sound financial basis, too. A noon movie, which was very well attended, contributed to this very materially.

The staff was well represented by large delegations at the fall and spring conferences of the C. D. S. P. A. at Cobbleskill and Hillside, respectively, and also at the E. S. S. P. A. at Syracuse. The paper received a good rating at Syracuse, and will doubtless be entered in a contest there next year.

The staff consists of:

Editor-in-Chief . . . . . MARGERIE HICKS
Assistant Editor . . . . . CONNIE CONROE
Front Page News . . . . . RICHARD BETTS, BEVERLY FORBUSH
Boys' Sport Editor . . . . . EDWARD BOUTELLE
Assistant Boys' Sport Editor . . . . . SCOTTY ROWE
Girls' Sport Editor . . . . . JUNE NODINE
Assistant Girls' Sport Editor . . . . . RUTH KILLOUGH
Business Manager . . . . . DEANE PHILLIPS
Assistant Business Manager . . . . . JAMES EASTMAN
Exchange Editor . . . . . VESTA WILLARD
Literary Editor . . . . . MARJORIE LITTLEFIELD
Art Editor . . . . . EDITH SEILER
Club Editor . . . . . JANE KETCHUM
Humor Editor . . . . . JEANNE PAIGE

"Junior Gems" . . . . . ROBERT MANLEY, ANDREW GRANATO
"Peeks by Pooky" . . . . . RICHARD GRANT, JOYCE MANLEY
Typists . . . . . ALICE TIBBITS, JEANNE KEYSER
Faculty Advisers . . . . . MISS SKEVINGTON, MR. HOAG

SENIOR DRAMATICS CLUB

The Senior Dramatics Club has had a large membership this year. Under the sponsorship of Miss Skevington, its activities have been very successful. Two plays were presented. In November, the club gave "The Ghost of the Show" for a joint assembly program. "What A Life," a Henry Aldrich comedy, was presented as the annual spring play. Miss Skevington directed the plays.

At the weekly meetings during the year the members of the club were entertained with various skits—presented by the four groups into which the club was divided. A Hallowe'en masquerade party was held by the club in the gym.

Those who did not take part in the plays helped in other phases of play production, such as: makeup, direction, stage managing, painting of scenery, selling tickets, etc.

The Officers of the club are:

President.....Norman Knisley
Vice President.....Deane Phillips
Secretary.....Frances Keelan
Treasurer.....Willis Vogel

L. X. I.

The L. X. I. had a successful year. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Haywood, and the officers for 1940-41 were Marion Kuhn, President; Marie Willis, Vice President; Dorothy Byrnes, Secretary; and Etta Mae Wineberger, Treasurer.

Many parties held in the homemaking room afforded much enjoyment to all the members. A horseback riding party and roller skating also figured in the year's social affairs.

Six new members were brought into the club during 1941, and officers were elected for the ensuing year. Those chosen to head the club for 1941 and '42 are:

President ..... Laura Furbeck
Vice President ..... Hilda Martin
Secretary ..... Anita Rockefeller
Treasurer ..... Virginia Lounsbury

Our last social event was in the form of a theater party. We wish the new officers success next year and are confident that they are able to carry on efficiently and have an enjoyable time with their various undertakings.

GIRLS' HI-Y

THE GIRLS' HI-Y HAD a very successful year under the supervision of Miss Lawrence. The girls started the year with a party for new members in the homemaking room. Twelve new girls were taken in as members this past year.

A basket was given in charity at Thanksgiving; the groceries were donated by the girls, and the meat was bought from money in the club treasury.

After the regular meetings, the girls played bridge and knitted for the British Relief. They had a skating party at Herrick's Pond, and a hayride and party are planned for the month of May. The Club officers are:

President ..... MARGIE SCHAFFNER
Vice President ..... FRANCES ARDIZONE
Secretary ..... FRANCES BAKER
Treasurer ..... RUTH KILLOUGH

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

THE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB, under the supervision of Miss White, had a full schedule of programs this year. We discussed current affairs, entertained many interesting speakers, and conducted a very successful assembly program.

The club, as a whole, attended the Forum and Symposium in Hudson, at Nott Terrace, and the Foreign Policy Institute in Albany. It took part in the Forum and Symposium held here. Some of the members attended the Student Conference at Syracuse University.

The officers this year were:

President.....JEAN TIEDEMAN
Secretary.....DOROTHY SPENCER

FUTURE FARMERS

THE PRINCIPLE OBJECTIVE of our Bethlehem Central chapter of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership. This objective is realized through participation in a wide variety of activities including judging contests, speaking and essay contests, record keeping contests, demonstration, athletic contests, exhibits, cooperative buying, conferences, and meetings.

A third successful Agricultural Banquet was held in November. This organization has continued the development of the school bird sanctuary, placing special emphasis on winter feeding. Various contests participated in by the club were at Syracuse, Windham, Delhi, Cobleskill, Kingston, Ithaca, and Berne, where the club won its share of the honors at stake.

Merle B. Barber is Group Chairman of the Albany group of F. F. A. chapters.

The officers of the chapter are:

President . . . . . WILLIAM C. BAILEY
Vice President . . . . . MERLE D. BARBER
Secretary . . . . . SPENCER F. LODGE
Reporter . . . . . THOMAS A. THALER
Farm Watch Dog . . . . . ROBERT V. GEEL

GUIDES AND TRAFFIC SQUAD

THE EFFICIENCY of the guides was intensified this year. Prompted by their able captain, Dick Betts, under the counsel of Mr. Hall, they have given the old ritual of "Where's your slip?" a meaning to those who hover in the halls without passes. As an experiment, a few sophomores were added to the crew. They proved adapt in learning the ropes for future service.

THE TRAFFIC SQUAD has functioned with its usual vigor under its captain, Dick Lynch. Dick has drafted a couple of girls this year. The Traffic Court has held several trials for violators of school laws.
